The sabbats are eight festivals that mark the turning of the wheel of the year. They are celebrated by witches and pagans around the world, and each sabbat has its own unique rituals, spells, and practices.

In this enchanting guidebook, you will learn how to celebrate the sabbats with the wisdom of the garden witch. You will find rituals to connect with nature, spells to cast for abundance and protection, and practices to help you live in harmony with the changing seasons.

Whether you are a seasoned witch or a curious beginner, this book will help you to deepen your connection to the earth and to the rhythms of the year.

What's inside?

- A detailed overview of each sabbat, including its history, traditions, and symbols
- Rituals and spells for each sabbat, designed to help you connect with nature and celebrate the changing seasons
- Practices for living in harmony with the earth, such as gardening, herbalism, and nature meditation
- Beautiful illustrations and photographs throughout
