Through captivating profiles and stunning photography, this book offers a firsthand account of the challenges, innovations, and triumphs that define this movement. Meet farmers who are embracing regenerative practices to heal the soil and foster biodiversity. Discover ranchers who are pioneering humane animal husbandry, respecting both the land and their livestock.

Inspiring Profiles of Resilience and Ingenuity

Within these pages, you'll encounter a diverse cast of agricultural pioneers:

- Sarah Hamacher: A dairy farmer who transitioned her operation to organic and regenerative practices, improving milk quality and soil health.

- Aaron Ganuelas: A fourth-generation farmer who uses drones and precision agriculture to optimize crop yields while conserving water.
- Ron Alvarado: A Hispanic rancher who promotes cultural diversity and food sovereignty through traditional farming techniques.
- Briana Wiles: A young farmer who established a micro-greens business, providing fresh, nutrient-rich produce to local communities.
- Curtis Stone: A winemaker who combines innovation and sustainability, using biodynamic practices to create award-winning wines.

Key Insights into Sustainable Farming Practices

Beyond the personal stories, Profiles From Oregon's New Farm Movement delves into the practical aspects of sustainable farming. You'll learn about:

- Composting and cover cropping for soil regeneration
- Rotational grazing for pasture management
- Biointensive farming for maximizing productivity
- Integrated pest management for reducing chemical use
- Direct marketing and farm-to-table connections

A Call to Action for a Healthier Food System
