This is the story of a young woman named Eva Kor. Eva was born in Romania in 1934. In 1944, when she was just ten years old, she and her family were sent to Auschwitz concentration camp.

Eva and her family were subjected to horrific conditions in the camp. They were starved, beaten, and forced to work long hours in the freezing cold. Eva's parents and two of her sisters were killed in the camp.

Despite the horrors she endured, Eva never gave up hope. She clung to the belief that she would one day be free. In 1945, the Soviet army liberated Auschwitz. Eva was one of the few survivors.

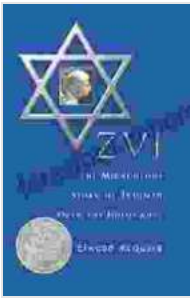

After the war, Eva immigrated to the United States. She dedicated her life to sharing her story with the world. She founded the CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center in Terre Haute, Indiana. CANDLES is a place where people can learn about the Holocaust and its victims.

Eva Kor's story is a testament to the power of hope. Even in the darkest of times, it is possible to find light. Eva's story is an inspiration to us all. It shows us that anything is possible if we never give up hope.
